Two Day Bus Trip To U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. Wednesday- Thursday, April 27-28

Members of Park Avenue Synagogue will be going to Washington, D.C. on Wednesday and Thursday, April 27 and 28 to visit the new United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. On Wednesday, they will be going to Washington via a deluxe motor coach, which will leave from the synagogue at 10 A.M., will have dinner at a kosher restaurant, have some time at leisure, and stay overnight at a hotel in the capital.

The next day, after a morning minyan at the hotel and brunch at the Holocaust Museum restaurant, they will have a full three hour tour of the museum, followed by a special briefing by a museum official. They will return to New York with the same motor coach, have a boxed supper on the bus, and be back by 9 P.M.

The cost of the trip is $150 per person. As there is limited space, please make your reservation as soon as possible by mailing your check, made payable to Park Avenue Synagogue, to the synagogue and the attention of Mrs. Helene Schneider.

Men's Club Brunch Sunday, April 17 To Be Co-Sponsored By the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies

Dr. Eva Fogelman

At a special program jointly sponsored by the Men's Club and the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies, Dr. Eva Fogelman, author of the forthcoming book, Conscience and Courage: Rescuers of Jews During the Holocaust, will be the guest speaker at a Sunday Brunch at 10 A.M. on April 17th.

In this book, she ponders deep questions such as: Why did these particular individuals become rescuers? Can moral integrity be taught and then applied? Is there such a thing as altruism? She explains that one of her reasons for writing the book was "to give altruism back its good name."

Dr. Fogelman is a social psychologist, psychotherapist and supervisor in private practice, as well as a filmmaker.

She received her certificate in family therapy from the Boston Family Institute in 1975, her advanced training in psychoanalytic psychotherapy and short-term psychotherapy from the Boston University Medical School's Department of Psychiatry in 1977, and her doctorate in social and personality psychology from The Graduate Center of The City University of New York in 1987.

Dr. Fogelman is the founding director of the Jewish Foundation for Christian Rescuers, a project of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith; a senior research fellow at the Center for Social Research at The Graduate Center of The City University of New York; co-director of Psychotherapy with Generations of the Holocaust and Related Traumas Program at the Training Institute for Mental Health and is on the Board of Directors of that institution; research associate at Child Development Research, working on an international study of organized persecution of children and is on the Board of Directors of that organization; and writer and co-producer of the award-winning documentary, Breaking the Silence: The Generation After the Holocaust.

She also served as an advisor to the United States Holocaust Memorial Council.

In addition to the above named book, she is the author of many articles and chapters in professional and popular publications and has spoken widely on the Holocaust.

Plan to attend this special program event to hear Dr. Eva Fogelman talk about her book on this very important topic. Reservations are required. Please call the synagogue office (369-2600) to make your reservation for the brunch.

A Word From The Rabbi

It was a little frightening to read an article last year in the London Jewish Chronicle by Vernon Bogdanor regarding anti-Semitism.

There have been anti-Semitic outbreaks in Germany, but there is no need to worry for the German government has made it clear that it stands four-square with the Jewish community in stamping out racism. "I know that the large majority of the German people consider themselves on your side in this battle," declares the president of a provincial parliament. The Minister of Justice points out that the leading anti-Jewish party has only secured 2% of the vote. There is no danger.

There is just one problem. These words and speeches are from 1928!

All too often Jews and others have argued that European anti-Semitism is something from the past. "We are not in the Middle Ages" declared French Jews at the time of the Dreyfus Affair.

After the First World War it had been a product of the Kaiser's autocracy. When the horrors of World War II were over there would be another Golden Age.

Often Jewish leaders put their faith in education or the law. Yet this too was ineffective. Banning the Nazis in Prussia in the 1920's only helped them gain strength.

It is also an illusion that anti-Semitism can be defeated by rational argument or that one outbreak inoculates against another. History has shown this not to be so.

Can the liberal decent-minded governments of Europe guarantee that their Jewish citizens will be able to live in safety for the foreseeable future? The only answer must be that they cannot.

— Rabbi David H. Lincoln

Lag B'Omer

Lag B'Omer occurs on the 33rd day after the second day of Passover, during the seven week Sefira ("counting") period between Passover and Shavuot. It begins on Thursday evening, April 28th and continues on Friday, April 29th.

A blessing is recited each night at the conclusion of the evening service. The word lag is an acronym made up of the two Hebrew letters, lamed and gimmel, which have a numeric value of 33.

Special attention is paid to Lag B'Omer because according to the Talmud (Yevamot 62b) a plague that had struck down many thousands of Rabbi Akiba's students abated on Lag B'Omer. Because of this event, Lag B'Omer also has been called Scholar's Day.

There is a New Shabbat Service at Park Avenue Synagogue — the Hashkama Service

Started a couple of months ago and taking place up until Passover, the new Shabbat Service at Park Avenue Synagogue—the Hashkama Service—from 7:30 to 9 A.M. every other Saturday grew from the minimum number of people required to a substantial size. The service is conducted entirely by congregants, the whole Torah portion is read, and it is followed by a nice Kiddush. Since there is no other early minyan Shabbat service on the East Side, this one has drawn people from outside our congregation. It will resume again in the fall.

Mayor Rudolph Giuliani and Reverend Theodore Hesburgh
To be Honored by
Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum
Foundation
At Park Avenue Synagogue

On Wednesday, April 20, 1994 at 7 P.M., Park Avenue Synagogue will host the Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum Foundation's Annual Award Ceremony and Memorial Lecture. Father Theodore Hesburgh, President Emeritus of Notre Dame University, will receive the foundation's first annual award for promoting interreligious understanding.

Mayor Rudolph W. Giuliani will deliver the first annual Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum Memorial Lecture. The Mayor will speak on "Politics and Faith: Tensions of Living in Two Worlds."

Widely hailed as the father of Jewish-Christian relations and the foremost Jewish ecumenical leader in the world, Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum was a distinguished member of our congregation. The Tanenbaum Foundation seeks to promote interreligious understanding and raise a strong voice against violence done in the name of religion.

Tickets are available at no charge from the Marc H. Tanenbaum Foundation at 30 Rockefeller Plaza, Suite 3021, New York, N.Y. 10020 or by phone (831-5064) or fax (876-8351). Only ticket holders will be admitted.

Food Pantry Project Honored At Shabbat Service on March 26

The Park Avenue Synagogue again honored the Food Pantry Project for the outstanding service it continues to render to the poor and hungry in our neighborhood during the Shabbat service on Saturday morning, March 26th.

The students in the Rabbi Judah Nadich High School hope to maintain the strong bond between the Food Pantry Project and the congregation which supports it financially because the need for this service to the community continues to be as great if not greater than ever. Since difficult times are still very much with us in New York City, the congregation's continuing support of this project is imperative!

Sherr Institute Courses in April and May

Here is a reminder about three very interesting courses being offered by the Sherr Institute of Adult Jewish Studies during the months of April and May.

First, Avner Tavori, spokesman for the Israeli Mission to the United Nations will be giving two lectures on the topic, Israel 1994: A Political Assessment, on Tuesday evening April 26 and May 3 from 7 to 8:15 P.M. His talks will consist of an up to the minute insider's analysis of the latest developments in the Middle East peace process from a long time active participant in Israeli public life, as well as a discussion of Israel's relationship with American Jewry as seen from an Israeli perspective. Tuition: members $25; non-members $35.

Second, Rabbi David H. Lincoln will discuss Pivotal Moments in Jewish History on three Tuesday mornings, May 3, 10, and 24 at 10:30 A.M., in a series offered in conjunction with Park Avenue Synagogue's Sisterhood. He will talk about the Maccabean Revolt, the First Crusades, and the French Revolution. Tuition is free.

Then, on two Wednesday evenings, May 4 and 11 from 7 to 8:15 P.M., Cantor David Lefkowitz will offer Cantorial Master Class II, two informal sessions devoted respectively to the melodic traditions of familiar prayers for the Festivals, Rosh Hashanah, and Yom Kippur. Learn how to participate in Park Avenue Synagogue's services and intensify your involvement in them. Tuition is free.

Sisterhood Hyde Park
Adventure Tuesday, May 18

On Tuesday, May 18th, Sisterhood's Hyde Park Adventure will take you through the Vanderbilt Museum, a symbol of wealth and industry; through the foliage and gardens of the Hudson Valley; and to Hyde Park, the home of Franklin D. Roosevelt and a national historic site. You will have lunch at Beekman Tavern, one of the oldest inns in the U.S., dating from 1776. The Women's Evening Group's Annual Shabbat Service
Friday, May 13 at 6:15 P.M.

Linda Fairstein

The Women's Evening Group's annual Friday Night Service will be held on Friday, May 13 at 6:15 P.M. and will be followed by a congregational Shabbat dinner at 7 P.M.

Linda Fairstein, chief of the Sex Crimes

Prosecution Unit of the New York District Attorney's Office and the author of the recently published Sexual Violence: Our War Against Rape will be the group's guest speaker.

A graduate of Vassar College and the University of Virginia School of Law, Ms. Fairstein joined the New York District Attorney's office in November, 1972, working first under Frank Hogan and then under Robert Morgenthau, the present district attorney who set up the first sex crimes prosecution unit in the country in 1974. Emulated in most other major cities, New York's SCPU has had extraordinary success in prosecuting these violent crimes.

Ms. Fairstein was the lead prosecutor in the case of the People vs. Robert Chambers, popularly known as the "Preppie Murder Case." The cases involving the "Midtown Rapist" and the "Central Park Jogger" brought her national attention.

In her recently published book, Ms. Fairstein calls rape a crime of sexual violence and details the prosecution of several cases. "To be part of a process that is attempting to achieve justice for crimes in which that result was long denied, and to practice law in a field where legislation and attitudes are still constantly evolving, is a rich reward and confirms all the ideals I held when I wanted to enter public service," she writes.

WEG encourages its members to participate in the annual WEG Shabbat Service. Those who are interested in doing so should contact Estelle Ivker at 758-7050 or Mimi Sunkin at 988-3684.

The Men's Club Yom Ha-Shoah
Candle Project

The Men's Club will be sponsoring its annual Yom Ha-Shoah Candle Project. Early this month, all members of the synagogue will be receiving a yellow yahrzeit candle and a prayer in the mail so that they will be able to light the candle and recite the prayer on Thursday evening, April 7th, erev Yom Ha-Shoah, in memory of the six million Jews who perished during the Holocaust.

WEG Theater Parties

The Women's Evening Group will be holding two theater parties, one in April and the other in June.

On Wednesday evening, April 13th, the group will be going to see "Passion," the new Stephen Sondheim-James Lapine musical based on a 19th century novel, set in Italy, about a woman's unrequited love for a young army captain. $75 per ticket.

Then, on Thursday, June 9th, the group is planning to see "Carousel," the widely anticipated revival of the 1945 Rodgers and Hammerstein hit musical which will finally arrive on Broadway after its sold-out run in London. Reminisce with songs like: "If I Loved You" and "June is Bustin' Out All Over." $75 per ticket.

Look for WEG's theater flyer in the mail or call or write WEG at Park Avenue Synagogue and leave a message.
